IN ALL CASES WHERE CONFIDENCE IS REQUIRED THE UTMOST SECRECY MAINTAINED.

The above rules, established Dr. J. C. Young in 1850, d which have done so much ..ure the reputation of this stitute, are still adhered to, ording those in need of dical aid, the certainty of re and the utmost confidence. There is nothing of so great portance to the sick as to ow where to find a physician whose skill and humanity d assurance of proper and licate treatment. The Doctor would respectfully call the attention of those of both sexes o are suffering or in trouble the invariable success that marked the career of the titute in the seventeen years its existence.

It is unnecessary in this con-ction to enumerate all the mplaints treated at the Institute, but the Doctor feels it duty to call especial attention to that terrible scourge, SEMINAL WEAKNESS, That is sapping with its in-fluence the very life of its ctims; in the treatment and re of which the Institute has ..ained so enviable a reputa-n.

The Soldiers for Grant

The following letters were read at the grand meeting of soldiers at Philadelphia on the second of the present month

LETTER FROM GENERAL SHERMAN

HEADQUARTERS MILITARY DIVISION OF THE MISSOURI
St Louis Mo Sept 10 1868

General H A Barnum, Washington D C

Dear General I have just received your letter of September 8th inviting me to attend a mass convention of the war veterans at Philadelphia on the 1st and 2d of October ... in the interest of the Republican party in the present canvass

It will be impossible for me to do so for many reasons, and I know no one to whom I can impart them better than to you

First I have too much to do in my proper legitimate business which keeps me west of the Mississippi

Second I am required by a summons to attend a called meeting of the Indian Peace Commission at Chicago on 9th of October

No one I trust, doubts my respect for, and absolute confidence in General Grant, at least he himself does not, and I extract for your information, from a letter of the General's, dated Washington, June 21st 1868

"Dear Sherman—Your kind letter, written from New Mexico, is received You understand the position exactly * * * * I feel very grateful to the officers of our army, whose military achievements made my reputation as well as their own, to know that they support me in this new field I do not expect to want active support, but merely the satisfaction of knowing what your letter assured me of on your part Officers who expect to make the army their home for life have to serve under successive administrations and should not make themselves obnoxious to any party likely ever to come into power" * * * * * *

This covers the whole ground and will I feel assured, prove perfectly satisfactory to you

With great respect your friend
W T SHERMAN, Lieut Gen.

LETTER FROM GENERAL HOWARD

WAR DEPARTMENT, BUREAU OF REFUGEES FREEDMEN AND ABANDONED LANDS,
WASHINGTON, Sept 24

General H A Barnum, New York City—My Dear Sir I have received your invitation to be present at a convention of Soldiers and Sailors to be held in Philadelphia on the 1st and 2d of October next I have just returned from an inspection tour through the Southern States and duties press me so hard at my office that I fear I will not be able to comply with your request

I am glad the convention is to be held I can never understand how men who were during the war willing to present their bodies as a living sacrifice for the preservation of our institutions, can possibly have their hearts wrong even before the hour of triumph has passed away I am rejoiced that so many agree with me and I shall have no fears for the future of our country if the men who fought will exercise every energy to preserve a proper public sentiment, and will give all their influence and their votes to the cause of liberty and justice

Let him who led us to the completeness of victory during the war lead us on safely to a complete triumph in peace Such I believe to be the earnest hope of every true hearted Union man, black and white, throughout the land

Faithfully yours,
O O HOWARD, Major General

LETTER FROM GENERAL POPE

DETROIT, Sept 14, 1868

General H. A. Barnum, and General N. P. Chipman, Committee

GENTLEMEN I thank you for the cordial and gratifying invitation you have given me to be present at the "Convention of Soldiers and Sailors," to meet in Philadelphia on the 1st and 2d of October, and I sincerely regret it is not in my power to accept it

Although your convention may not be necessary to give assurance of a fact so well known as is the purpose of the soldiers and sailors of the Union army and navy, whether now in the service or in civil life to support General Grant, yet it will be an occasion full of interest and an appropriate tribute to that distinguished soldier

It will also give, with recognized authority an effectual response to the extraordinary proceedings of the convention of so called "Conservative Soldiers and Sailors," which met in New York in July last, and fitly illustrates its "Conservatism" and its consistency by denouncing General Grant as a renegade, and welcoming Simon Bolivar Buckner with enthusiastic applause

It is hard to understand how any man who believed in the righteousness of the principles for which he fought can fail to support General Grant or how any one who was not willing to surrender to the rebellion during the war can be willing to surrender to it now by voting for General Grant's opponent

Whoever wishes to see the condition of affairs which existed before the war re-established and to see restored to place and power the prominent leaders of the rebellion who held military or civil office who used all the influence of their position to precipitate the rebellion, and who desired those offices only when they could no longer be used to injure the government—whoever in short, wishes to see all the results achieved by so much bloodshed and sacrifice surrendered into the hands of those whose avowed purpose it is to bring them to naught, will be right in voting for the candidates of the Democratic party

Whatever may be the purpose of the Northern Democrats there can be no doubt as to those of the Southern leaders of that party These leaders are the same men who inspired and conducted the rebellion and neither their conduct in the past nor their open threats for the future, permit a doubt that, once possessed of the power they would carry out to its uttermost limits the platform of the Democratic party, and the purposes set forth in the letter of their candidate for the Vice Presidency That they will possess the power in the Government should the Democratic party succeed, to accomplish their object and plunge the country into another civil war is sufficiently manifest by the controlling influence they exercised in the Democratic Convention

General Grant's great services to his country his firmness of character his kind and magnanimous disposition, his evenness of temper and his tried capacity for affairs, eminently fit him to discharge the duties of the Presidential office and the country would have every reason to feel confidence in the wisdom and purity of his administration

His election is our only surety of peace, and what is still more important—what indeed is vital to the very existence of the government It will give assurance that loyalty and not treason is respectable

I am gentlemen,
Your obedient servant
JOHN POPE

LETTER FROM GENERAL SIGEL

MORRISANIA, Sept 2 1868

N P Chapman Secretary—Dear Sir Your letter inviting me to be present at the grand mass convention to be held at Philadelphia on the 1st and 2d of October next is received

In thanking the committee for their cordial invitation, I am sorry to say that other engagements and duties will prevent me from participating in your demonstration at the time stated I shall however not fail to be present at the grand mass meeting of the 3d of November to throw my vote into the scale for the triumph of national supremacy justice and humanity

Very respectfully and truly yours
F SIGEL late Maj Gen of Vols

THE DEMORALIZED DEMOCRACY!

Democratic Papers Discuss the Proposition to withdraw Seymour and Blair.

Proposition to allow Seymour and Blair to Select their Successors."

Frank Blair says he is Ready to Withdraw

Betting Democrats in Trouble.

Further Election News.

Republicans Everywhere Triumphant

Belmont, the Bloated Bondholder Speaks.

WASHINGTON, Oct 17 The following is an answer to a dispatch from this city asking whether the proposition for a change in the Democratic Presidential candidate was approved by the Democracy in New York

T J Pr D Homer Esq No authority or possibility of change from it All friends consider it totally impracticable and equivalent to disbanding our forces We in New York are not panic stricken

(Signed) AUGUST BELMONT,
AUGUSTUS SCHELL.

Selecting their "Successors"

NEW ORLEANS, Oct 16—The Times has an article deprecating the withdrawal of either Seymour or Blair but if it were considered necessary it suggests the propriety of leaving to these gentlemen the selection of their successors

Frank Blair Getting Sober—Democratic Papers Discuss the Situation

CHICAGO Oct 17—Gen Blair in a speech at St Louis last night said he expected to be a candidate so long as the Democratic party desired it; but would surrender his position whenever by so doing he would add one vote to the strength of the Democracy

Democratic papers all over the country comment on the proposition to change the ticket The most prominent journals generally reject the plan The question of how the withdrawal of Seymour would affect the bets pending on his election seems to form an important element in the discussion

The Republican Majorities

CHICAGO Oct 17—The latest election returns show a majority in Pennsylvania for the Republicans of about 10,000

Preparations are being made to contest the election of all the city candidates in Philadelphia. The majority for Mayor is 1,618

In Indiana Baker's majority is about 1 000 Official returns may increase it to 1 500 Voorhees is elected but his seat will be contested by Reed, the Democratic competitor of Julian (who is declared elected by 123 majority), will contest the election because the vote of one poll in the city of Richmond was thrown out by the judges

In Ohio the majority for the Republicans will reach over 18 800

UNKIND—The unkindest cut at the Democratic party we have heard of for some time, was perpetrated in New Jersey recently It appears that the Vineland Democrat, heretofore a strong Democratic paper, and one of no small influence a few days ago changed its name to the Vineland True Democrat, hauled down its standing sympathy for Seymour and Blair, and raised the names of Grant and Colfax The following are the reasons given for the change, in abstract:

1 They consider the election of Seymour and Blair a virtual defeat of the Democratic party

2 They believe that Grant and Colfax better serve the interest of the Democratic party than Seymour and Blair

3 They were unwilling further to ... to furnish free literature to a party a majority of whom could not read

THE CAMILLA MASSACRE—The Governor of Georgia, in a communication to the Legislature on the subject of the Camilla ... says

"The fact that this occurrence is the result of a determination, publicly expressed by irresponsible persons of one political party, that those of the other political party shall not hold meetings, is too well known. It is gratifying to know the sentiment is confined to a lawless class, and is not countenanced or supported by reasonable citizens The misfortune is that such outrages have not been prevented, and unless physical force is added to the honest efforts of the officers of the law, we shall be thrown into a state of anarchy in which neither life nor property will be regarded"

The indolent, whisky-drinking ex-rebels are doubtless the worthless class to whom he refers

In regard to the State of New York, the New York Commercial Advertiser says. "From all parts of the State comes cheering news. 'We will give you more than old-fashioned majorities in our county We will do better than in 1864 and 1866.' What will the city do? anxiously inquire our country ... We tell them candidly that we shall do better than we have done in this city in many years. We have the best organization we ever had. We shall have more aid from Democrats than we ever had. The patriotic men of that party will cast their votes for Grant. We cannot be mistaken in saying that the Republican vote in this city will not fall much short of 45,000. We tell our friends in the country to be of good cheer—the skies are bright, and just as sure as the coming of November will Grant and Griswold carry New York. Up, boys, and at them."

The Position of Oregon

The Herald attacks Senator Williams with all the weapons it can draw from its magazine of invective and vituperation because he is telling the people of Oregon that they can best promote their own interests by voting for Grant and Colfax. But these weapons are too much blunted and are wielded by too weak a hand to hurt anybody. That it will be far better for Oregon in every point of view to unite with the proud array of States which are certain to vote for Grant and Colfax is an argument which cannot be destroyed by the impotent vituperation of a senile gabbler. Every man of sense knows that it will be greatly to the advantage of Oregon to stand with the great Republican party which is certain to control the nation for many years to come. No disadvantage could be greater than that which our State will labor under if she continue to pursue the foolish and reactionary policy which has been instituted here since the Copperheads obtained control in the last election. Oregon will be mentioned with contempt everywhere. And let Democratic editors fume as much as they will about the attempt to induce the people of this State "by appealing to sordid motives," to vote for Grant and Colfax, it must nevertheless, be perfectly obvious that Congress and the coming Republican Administration will not be very likely to do much for a State which is continually denouncing them as "Radical thieves," "despotic tyrants" and usurping revolutionists. Let the matter be looked at fairly. What right has a State whose Legislature takes this course to expect any consideration at the hands of those whom it treats with such rudeness and disrespect?

Look at the course of the present Legislature. The Democratic majority have gone out of their way on every possible occasion to insult and denounce Congress. They have declared that Congress is a revolutionary body, that its acts have been grossly violative of the Constitution, that it has committed grievous and countless usurpations; that it is the destroyer of liberty, the creator and supporter of a despotism, and the promoter of fraud, peculation and general corruption. In their disgracefully insolent and grossly insulting preamble and resolutions concerning the 14th amendment, the majority in the Legislature exhibit themselves to Congress and to the whole nation in their real character. These resolutions, charging Congress with the gravest of crimes, and abusing that body without stint, are to be sent to the two Houses at Washington. Is there any one who supposes that the interests of Oregon will be benefitted by this ebullition of Copperhead insolence, falsehood and spleen? Let it be remembered that the next Congress will be just as strongly Republican as the present one and that the Democrats have nothing at all to hope for in the way of an increase of strength at the National Capital. Let it be remembered too, that the voice of the nation in the late elections has given the lie to the assertions of the Oregon Legislature that Congress has been guilty of usurpations, and that its acts are in violation of the Constitution. Rev. Joseph Smith goes to Congress at the time when his political brethren at home are doing these things, and the result of it all will be that he will have as little influence, and be quite as worthless, in that body, as if he were the accredited representative of the Ku Klux of Georgia.

Yet the Legislature which is thus insulting and denouncing Congress, and attempting to reverse the declared will of the nation, is adopting one memorial after another, asking Congress to assist the State in establishing her commerce, building up her system of internal improvements and enlarging her various industries. Subsidies amounting to many millions of dollars have already been demanded by this Legislature. Candor compels us to express the opinion that there is little probability that these demands, coming from such a source, will be granted. It is to be hoped that the people of Oregon will be wise enough not to elect another Legislature of this kind. Oregon can do much to retrieve her character by giving her vote to Grant and Colfax.

The Unholy Alliance

Some days ago we published a document descriptive of the Southern delegations in the Tammany Convention. Nearly all of the Southern delegates to the Assembly had been officers in the rebel army or members of the rebel Congress. It is positively amazing that the party which makes these men its leaders can find any room to operate on Northern soil. But it is no wonder that such a party is overthrown by the votes of the patriotic men of the country. Such a congregation of blood-stained traitors as assembled from the Southern States at the Tammany Convention never before met on the face of the earth. And to make matters still worse they all pronounced for another fight unless they were allowed to have their own way. While the Republican party does not [illegible] ing for revenge, and invariably exercises the largest charity in dealing with its enemies, it nevertheless repudiates the idea that treason is as good as loyalty, and that the men who fought on opposite sides during the war—the one to destroy the Union and the other to save it,—are equally meritorious. The defeat of the Democratic party is the just and natural consequence of that party's action in taking to its embrace the leaders of the rebellion and promising to co-operate with them in overthrowing the Constitution and laws by force.

The Herald continues to assert that Senator Williams has "betrayed" the people of Oregon. Senator Williams as every man knows, has done and is doing just what he was elected [illegible]. How then has he betrayed the people? Let us try once more to make this matter plain to the Herald. Senator Williams was elected [illegible] by the Union party of Oregon. That party had at that time a large majority in the State [illegible] more than Beriah Brown and a large number [illegible] ebel carpet-baggers [illegible] [illegible] g[illegible] and last year the [illegible] the Democrats. And now the said Beriah Brown and his fellow carpet-bagging rebels set up a cry that Williams has "betrayed" them! This is Confederate logic of the first water.

Specimen Campaign Song

The evening exponent of Democratic neutrality which is published in this city gives a campaign song, from which we extract a couple of stanzas:

> But that is not the worst of it, Teddy,
> The [illegible] now,
> [illegible] like a Dimmykrat white man
> An' a kick up for his rights in a row;
> [illegible] persecuted is public opinion
> That it's not safe to crack open his skull
> [illegible] a Dimmycrat [illegible]
> [illegible] Teddy my boy.
>
> [illegible] the [illegible] hundreds [illegible]
> [illegible]
> [illegible] Stevens has gone to blue blazes
> A[illegible] we've a friend in Saymore
> [illegible] up your dhudeen [illegible]
> [illegible] fight,
> A[illegible] your black-thorn shillelah
> And we'll soon give the naygurs a thwist
> Teddy my boy.

The accursed spirit of the Democratic party was never more clearly disclosed than in these lines. It is enough to make humanity shudder to contemplate the depth of brutality which they reveal, and to reflect that this brutality is fostered and encouraged by the Democratic party. Public opinion is so badly "perverted that it isn't safe to crack open a naygur's skull," but the injured Democracy "have a friend in Saymore," who is expected to redress this and other grievances of a like character! Surely all who contemplate the demoniacal spirit which is exhibited in these lines and remember that this is the spirit of a large portion of the Democratic party must see that there is an urgent necessity for the friends of humanity to combine to crush this party of brutality and barbarism. Talk about the ferocity and brutality of negroes in comparison with what is exhibited in this Democratic campaign song! There is no comparison at all.

Larry Bee. That frothy, bumbling Larrabee who tried to make a living in this place two or three years ago and failed, is in California stumping for Seymour and Blair. The Marysville Appeal gives him the following notice:

It is reported that Col. Larrabee, the loyal [illegible] and carpet bagger who is stumping the State for the secessionists was a political [illegible] [illegible] companion of Beriah Brown, while both were residents of Wisconsin, and that, while Beriah was the leading spirit of the Democratic ring known as the "Forty Thieves," Charles H. Larrabee was one of the active members. We [illegible] that Brown and others gained this [illegible] [illegible] distinction through the laudable enterprise of the La Crosse railroad swindle and the grabbing and appropriating many thousands of dollars of the school fund of the State and transferring the same to the general fund that it might be gobbled up by the political cormorants hanging about the Wisconsin State Treasury. If it is true, and we are so informed, that Colonel Larrabee was, and is, a Democrat, a delegate to the Chicago National Democratic Convention in 186[illegible] and one of Beriah Brown's right bower in the forty thieves ring, he of right belongs to the Democracy by instinct and education and has a [illegible] to stump for Seymour and Blair. He [illegible] was so obscure that it was necessary [illegible] [illegible] certificates to show he served in the army.

Taking it Back. The San Francisco Dispatch, a Democratic newspaper, having been deceived by some of our Beriah's lies, apologizes in this handsome manner:

General O. H. La Grange.—In our issue of the 21st inst. an article was copied from the Oregon Herald concerning the gentleman whose name is at the head of this article, in which a charge is embodied reflecting upon his fidelity to the marital vow, and also containing a severe imputation upon his wife. Of General La Grange's domestic or private affairs we know nothing whatever, and only copied the article as it appeared in the paper from which it was taken. We have since received from gentlemen whose positions in society are such as to assure the truthfulness of their statements, assurances that there is no truth in the charge made against General La Grange of having deserted a former wife or child, and that the charge against his wife is without foundation. Justice at our hands requires this statement and we freely make it. We regret that our columns have been the means of giving additional circulation to a statement which we are now convinced is untrue, especially as it contained injurious reflections upon a lady's character. Our only explanation is, that we copied from what seemed to be an uncontradicted charge, and it gives us pleasure to do all the reparation in our power.

Of Howell Cobb lately deceased, the Sacramento [illegible] very justly says: "Had he possessed the grace of silence, had he contented himself with a quiet life, instead of rushing into the political arena to wag his brazen tongue against those who have been so magnanimous towards him, the mantle of charity might fall over his faults and the grave be suffered to envelop him in oblivion. But when such a man sets himself up as a public instructor, a leader of young men, a patriot, he must receive the justice he challenges. He is one whose traitorous tongue deserved to be silenced suddenly, as it was, by the stroke of death, just as he was beginning to parade his infamy again in the face of the insulted people."

It is very clear that the Democratic managers have been discussing the policy of withdrawing Seymour and Blair, and making a complete change of programme. Belmont, however, telegraphs that the change is considered wholly impracticable. But were there two months time to go on it can hardly be doubted that new candidates would be put in the field. The proposition for a change at this juncture shows the utter despair of the Democracy and will damage them greatly. It will immensely agravate the disaster of their defeat on the 3d of November. The indications are that the party will hardly make a respectable fight anywhere.

The San Francisco Bulletin rightly remarks that "if the Oregon Democrats rescind the State's ratification of the 14th amendment, there is no reason why they should not do the same with the amendment abolishing slavery. Certainly not. Either act," says the Bulletin, "is an application of secession principles, for the claim of a right to rescind the ratification of an Amendment to the Constitution is based on the same reasoning which justifies withdrawal from the compact of the whole instrument."

The meeting at the Court House last (Monday) evening was not very largely attended. Mr. Bowlby opened the debate with a candid and clear statement of political issues, and was followed by Mr. Burnett, who talked about the unconstitutionality of the reconstruction acts, the nigger, etc., and wound up with the chorus of "Nigger, nigger, nig."

The Lost Cause organ of this city in its last leader talks indignantly about "the subjugation of the people of the ten Southern States." Come, [illegible] a fresh topic! And argument on [illegible] subject since the elections is so very effective. [illegible] How would you like to have your sister marry a nigger?

Every intelligent and candid Democrat admits that Grant and Colfax will certainly be elected. It is only such uncandid fools as Beriah Brown who pretend to think that Seymour and Blair have the ghost of a chance.

The C[illegible] is a Democratic paper published in California says: "Democrats may try to cover it up if they will, but the right of secession enters into and is a question to be decided by this election."

A Seymour and Blair Club in Sumpter, South Carolina, has a white man for President and two Vice Presidents who are both negroes. What is now white man's government?

[illegible] of New York, the leading [illegible] paper in the United States, has come out in favor of Grant and Colfax.

The Roseburg Ensign says that Democratic visages are so long that it hasn't the heart to crow.

Why They Will Not Vote for Seymour

A private letter from a lady in Utica contains the following [illegible] of a recent conversation in a railroad car, in the course of which some good reasons were given [illegible] why votes should not be cast for Horatio Seymour:

A gentleman formerly a Democrat, with a clear smooth telling voice, gave his views to a fellow gentleman with him in such a way as to interest all the passengers in the crowded car. The first part that attracted me was the following: "My county, which is Erie county, gave in the first [illegible] something over nine hundred majority for the Republican candidate in the [illegible] and I am prepared to say that she will give at least thirty-two hundred [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] how [illegible] Democrats [illegible] children in the late war in the Northern side [illegible] [illegible] man who [illegible] [illegible] victory would [illegible] [illegible] the Seymour. [illegible] Interesting [illegible] in Nova Scotia. The [illegible] of September 23 contains a stirring article under the heading "Ready! Aye Ready." The following passages show the spirit of independence is making progress among the people of Nova Scotia:

[illegible] in Nova Scotia we are victims to the [illegible] from the British [illegible] territories that are gathered beneath the protection of the proud banner of America. We look back at the rise of that great Republic and are astonished at its amazing strides in the onward race among the nationalities of the world. The flag of the United States is respected in every sea, and her maritime and national progress are equal to one of all the proud dynasties of Europe.

When Nova Scotia looks back over the records of their history they have no cause to blush for their loyalty and royalty [illegible] be understood, but when the word is bandied about by a horde of conspirators who have been mere political scavengers, it is not strange that such loyalty has no charms for them. It is possible that the sun of our country's freedom has gone down, and that the dark and gloomy night of grinding despotism is upon us. We do not believe it, we do not see that our people should be discouraged. Let us wait patiently a little longer for the redemption of our country. Should our loyal efforts fail, then indeed will we have to decide upon other measures, and he who calmly looks at the whole position and watches the tide of sympathy that is rapidly rising for us on this continent, as well as in England, must be convinced that Nova Scotia, are many months will stand in a position different from what she now occupies. The Washingtons, the Franklins, the Jeffersons and others who laid the foundation stone of the great Republic bequeathed to all America the priceless blessings of freedom. He is a blind bigot indeed who can fail to see that the results flowing from the work of these men cannot be confined to one portion of America. The language of liberty is "[illegible] put up in a contracts our powers for the whole boundless continent is ours."

The Passage of the Dardanelles by Admiral Farragut's Flag Ship.—The English papers contain the official correspondence between Mr. Morris our Minister resident at Constantinople and the Turkish Minister of Foreign Affairs, in regard to the passage of the Dardanelles by Admiral Farragut's flag ship, the Franklin. Mr. Morris in requesting that the Franklin be allowed to come to Constantinople admits that according to the Paris treaty the Franklin would be excluded, owing to her size and armament, but urges that exceptions have been made from time to time in favor of ships having on board a prince of imperial or royal blood. He continues:

"Hereditary dignities do not exist in the United States. If those exceptions were exclusively limited to princes of the blood, the historical personages of the United States Republic would not be able to profit by the same exception and the consequence would be to render extremely exceptional their position with the Porte.

"Admiral Farragut is the officer of the highest rank in the American navy, and the most distinguished. His war feats greatly contributed to the salvation of the country, and the conservation of the American Union against her enemies. His fame has become cosmopolitan, and he has been received in all the Courts of Europe with princely honors. The sovereigns have granted to him a reception hors ligne, considering the facts of his history rather more than his blood."

The Minister of Foreign Affairs promptly replies that as the case was urged as an exceptional one, and as the Sultan desired "to give proof of his regard for a high personage of the great American Republic," the permission would be granted. An order was accordingly issued to the authorities at the Dardanelles to that effect. The order says: "The dimensions of that ship of war are, it is true, beyond the limitations stipulated in the Treaty of Paris, but his Imperial Majesty the Sultan, wishing to testify his regard for the great American Republic, [illegible] to see that [illegible] frigate has granted in a way entirely exceptional the permission sought for."

Changing their Tune.—The Washington Ch[illegible] has the following: "We learn from an authentic source that Tyler, editor of the Mobile [illegible], has received a letter from Manton Marble, editor of the New York World, [illegible] a change of tone on the part of Southern politicians, and stating that hundreds of Democrats in New York, [illegible] are daily going over to the Republican party, in consequence of the extreme spirit [illegible] and bitter feelings manifested throughout the South. Mr. Marble said that the people of the North were apprehensive of revolution, and that unless the Southern people should moderate their tone it would not be possible for the Democrats to carry the State of New York."

We are [illegible] from [illegible] authority which we consider [illegible] that the editor of a prominent Democratic paper in Cincinnati, just before the Maine election, wrote to a leading Democratic editor in the South, who is now a [illegible] with [illegible] giving advice similar to that of Mr. Marble, and [illegible] in the same connection that if the Republicans carried Maine by a majority of more than five thousand, the Democrats could not hope to carry Ohio.

An enthusiastic Democrat, during a large Democratic meeting in Indianapolis at which Frank Blair spoke, approached Capt. Meredith of the Journal office with the inquiry [illegible] [illegible] Capt [illegible] [illegible] Who [illegible] from Missouri [illegible] the reply.

[illegible] New York [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] party [illegible] [illegible] better leader than [illegible]? And is it not the same man that has [illegible] against them both?

BY TELEGRAPH.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Oregon Legislature.

Salem, Oct. 19.—In the House to-day, Smith from the Military Committee reported against the bill abolishing the office of Adjutant General. Report laid on the table.

The bill to raise the salary of the Judge of the [illegible] Judicial District was disposed of after a lengthy discussion, by being laid on the table.

The Committee on Judiciary was instructed to report a bill to provide for the disposal of school lands.

The memorial for aid to build a wagon road from Yamhill to Tillamook was adopted.

Smith introduced a bill making an appropriation of $[illegible],000 to build a road from Jacksonville to Link river.

The Senate joint resolution, designating the East Side Railroad Company as entitled to the land grant, came up, and pending a motion to adopt, the House took a recess and did not again take it up.

The bill to license soliciting agents and the bill to change the time of making assessments were lost.

The bill providing a four mill school tax was passed.

The bill making sheriffs the inspectors of bridges was lost.

The bill to protect oyster beds passed.

The bill to incorporate Dalles City passed.

In the Senate the joint memorial asking aid for the improvement of the Wallamet river was adopted.

The following bills were passed: A bill to provide for the stay of execution upon judgments in Justices Courts; to amend the law in relation to the perpetuation of testimony; to amend the law relating to grocers and peddlers license.

The Senate was in a Committee of the Whole nearly the entire afternoon. The Committee [illegible] a favorable report on the bill to provide for the improvement of the Wallamet river.

The West Side Railroad people are working hard to defeat the Senate resolution favoring the East Side Company in the House. They defeated a vote on it to-day by filibustering. The vote is expected to be very close. The East Side men had Dr. Alexander, the Secretary's office, to be in readiness to vote though he is scarcely able to [illegible]

Dr. Vesey, the geologist, lectures to-night in the Hall of the House on the mineral resources of the State.

The secession of the Hon. James T. Brady, the distinguished New York lawyer, from the Democratic party has already been announced. The list of this class is growing daily. Among the latest additions are Hon. Henry L. Wait, of Albany, formerly a Democratic member of the State Assembly, and a highly influential man in his district; Hon. J. M. [illegible] Murphy, also of New York, and lately a Tammany Democratic State Senator elected by 4,000 majority. Michael T. O'[illegible] [illegible] for twenty-five years a prominent Irish Democrat of New York city, has also left the party, believing it unworthy of support as being sustained by August Belmont, the reputed emissary of the British Government, and as opposing in Congress all the legislation in behalf of Irishmen. He calls on his Irish American brethren to support Grant, the man who saved the asylum of the Irish people from being handed over to England by Jeff. Davis and the Southern rebels.

Spaulding's Glue is used in every country on the globe.

DR. JIM.

The Chinawoman who was shot in the breast and arm by her crazy husband at Salem, a few weeks ago, has been entirely cured in three weeks time by the skill of this celebrated physician.

Witness: W. O. Bailey.

IT IS AN INVARIABLE LAW OF NAture that every human being shall do those acts which he thinks will secure good to him, and that he shall avoid those acts which may occasion a loss to him or the family he is a member of. In conformity with that law it is the duty of every person to purchase of Kohn & Fishel all the goods they may be in need of. The fair sex, who certainly are always most happy to comply with all things beneficial to themselves and families, should not fail to examine the fine and extensive stock of Kohn & Fishel, and they will confess their stock of Dry Goods to be of superior quality and at figures below others. [illegible] Men, more bold and less calculating than our fair ladies, should be reminded that Kohn & Fishel indeed are the leaders of fashion, the lowest in price, and no man should wear clothes unless they are purchased at Kohn & Fishel's, No. 91 Front street.

Come in the Forenoon to BUCHTEL'S GALLERY for the finest work in the art of Photography. [illegible] Imperial Cards, Ambrotypes, Plain Photographs, Old Pictures Enlarged, Re touched, Painted in Oil or Water Colors. Come in the morning.

A WORD TO CROAKERS.—Those who are engaged in business in this city and seldom if ever leave their out [illegible] do you ever take it into consideration that Portland will [illegible] among our large cities. If you have any doubt of this take a stroll once or twice a week and see the extensive improvements that are being made at the present time in every portion of the city. Tenements of every description are being erected. No less than two hundred residences and business houses will be complete now soon that were commenced only a few months since and still we hear applications everyday for business houses. It is true that in other portions of our city a few frame business houses are [illegible] empty. This arises more from the fact that [illegible] buildings can now be had. We are proud to [illegible] also a determination on the part of property [illegible] to improve the streets and sidewalks. No less than three hundred men have received constant employment since early last spring in our streets. No less than [illegible] dollars will be spent the present season in permanent improvements. But notwithstanding all this [illegible] the same class of croakers here that were [illegible] in an early day who are always fault finding and constantly magnifying our reason difficulties. Those who keep their money buried or laying in bank at a nominal rate of interest, afraid either to loan it on real estate or personal security—to all such as these we would say, would it not be well for you to give this matter consideration. A few days ago a merchant [illegible] who has been in business here seven years [illegible] the remark that a certain piece of property that was [illegible] for $6,000 in 1862 could now be sold readily [illegible] and with no more improvements on than at that time. This may seem strange to some of our croakers but nevertheless it is true. Portland, since that time [illegible] their population. Will any one doubt for a moment that with all our future prospects with a prospect [illegible] of the Central Pacific Railroad as [illegible] our own roads now being built up the Wallamet [illegible] connect with, perhaps, the Union Pacific, we [illegible] any one doubt but what Portland will, even in [illegible], again double her population. One of [illegible] that everything here is on a perma[illegible] [illegible] the fact of great scarcity of labor of all kinds. Notwithstanding the large importation of Coolies [illegible] brought here to work on our Railroads, and other employment, there is now a great scarcity [illegible] less than twenty five carpenters could find [illegible] at fair wage, the Railroad, east side, adver[illegible] [illegible] white men wanted. Farmers are [illegible] day, "Do you know where I could find [illegible] on a farm?" Some one suggested the [illegible] to a certain farmer to employ China[illegible] [illegible] that even Chinamen were not to [illegible] price. We merely allude to this to prove [illegible] that our argument is a good one [illegible] hereafter any citizen at least of Oregon [illegible] at home or abroad, will stand up for her [illegible] be ashamed to own that he is from the [illegible] when he pays San Francisco a visit that he [illegible] name in legible letters as being from [illegible] small occasions. When in con[illegible] [illegible] others talk up the resources [illegible]. Another chapter on this same subject [illegible] some future time.

[illegible] DR. JIM.—We have received from Dr. [illegible] ed to the State Legislature, of which [illegible] the substance. The letter was written [illegible]. The spelling is good, only three or four [illegible] wrong. We have made some cor[illegible] grammar, but the substance of the com[illegible] [illegible], and as nearly as possible the words. [illegible] Oregon in 1861, and have been in Portland [illegible] found the law good, and the people good [illegible] Chinamen to live very happy indeed. Now [illegible] that Chinamen are to be taxed fifteen [illegible]. This I call robbing by law, for, although [illegible] it is so much like robbing that I think it [illegible] times worse. I like to see robbing better [illegible] law, for robbers would only trouble once [illegible] of time, while the law will trouble every [illegible] where in the State of Oregon. I am [illegible] that. I have lived in California since 1854 [illegible] tax in California is a good time for mining [illegible] dollars each month. Some have money to [illegible] poor men can not get any food, and when [illegible] they have no money to pay and the [illegible] all over and knocks them down and [illegible] very badly, and, in some instances, kill them [illegible] law robbing. It is no trouble to me, but I [illegible] people live happy but I dont like to see them [illegible]. God made the world for everybody to [illegible] to love God, yet you make this [illegible] very dangerous to the Chinamen. I hope [illegible] and honest judges will take this danger [illegible] who will never forget the kindness, [illegible] for we Chinamen love good laws, as [illegible]. I send this letter to Hon. W. W. [illegible] of the Legislature. I think [illegible] and know how much suffering this [illegible] Chinamen in this country, they will [illegible].

DOCTOR JIM.

They have decorated the [illegible], and we hope to have a good time [illegible] body and his family to come and see us [illegible] on Wednesday the 21st and close [illegible]

[illegible].—On last Sunday, the wife of Mr. [illegible] who resides some fourteen miles west of [illegible] the subject of a very serious accident. Her [illegible] placed a gun loaded with buckshot, upon [illegible] he was passing near, it fell and the ham[illegible] upon some object, the gun was discharged [illegible] entered the leg of Mrs. White just [illegible], shattering the bone all to pieces, cut[illegible] the arteries and muscles in a dreadful [illegible]. A messenger was hastily dispatched for Dr. [illegible] went immediately to the scene of the dis[illegible] [illegible] there after dark Sunday night. He [illegible] that nothing could be done other than [illegible]. This operation be performed, and the lady [illegible] to this city yesterday, at last accounts [illegible] as could be expected under such cir[illegible]. She is the daughter-in-law of [illegible] of this city and this unfortunate accident is [illegible] of deep regret to her many friends.

LAST NIGHT.—The attendance at the [illegible] night to hear Dr. Bowlby and Mr. Bur[illegible] large. The house, as far as we could [illegible] about equally divided. As to the [illegible] only say they were well received by the [illegible] adherents of the candidates. Dr. Bowl[illegible] [illegible] plain, candid and logical statement [illegible] of Republicanism—a [illegible] very one [illegible] the masses can understand and appre[illegible] [illegible] well pleased his Democratic hearers. [illegible] appearance of Hon. A. B. Meacham from [illegible] had a Republican candidate, made his [illegible] while Dr. B. was speaking and was received [illegible]. Everybody seemed to think Grant [illegible], let Oregon go as it may.

[illegible]—We learn that the new steamer Dayton [illegible] People's Transportation Company for the [illegible] fired up last Saturday for the first time, [illegible] to make her trial trip yesterday, starting from [illegible] about noon and running up to Dayton. The [illegible] friends of Captain Kellogg and [illegible] McCully were invited and also members of [illegible]. On her arrival at Dayton it is anticipated [illegible] of that city will present her with colors [illegible] handsome of the good taste and en[illegible] [illegible], etc. She is undoubtedly the finest [illegible] finish of any craft that ever walked [illegible] Yamhill river, as her trial will prove [illegible] the fastest.

[illegible]—The following is the manifest of the bark [illegible] Francisco, now in port: Triangle B [illegible] Wagner 17, W K 21, H S 60, diamond [illegible] O 15, C M & Co 10, L E & Son 5, C [illegible], K & Bro 10, J M & Bro 23, T & Co 5 [illegible] 15, J F & Co 2, W I 150, Sayler & C[illegible] California 170, A & L [illegible] [illegible] Triangle 3 177, P S 2, C H W 5, K I [illegible] W & M 20, O & N Co 43, C W [illegible] Bro 59, H & Co 25, E D 10, C & M 253 [illegible] B & H 42, O & Co 20, C & Co 14, R O & [illegible] 150, E & Co 2 iron safes.

[illegible]—To witness "Ernest Maltravers," as ren[illegible] by the excellent troupe now performing in this [illegible] one of the best dramatic entertainments [illegible] in Portland. The scenery is new and the [illegible] is well skilled in their respective parts [illegible] greeted them last night and we trust [illegible] of the city, that they will continue to re[illegible] [illegible] from the public. Such an institu[illegible] [illegible] place more attractive to a large class of [illegible], who would not otherwise remain [illegible]. This evening, for the first time in this city [illegible] play of "Caste" will be presented.

[illegible]—The course of lectures at the Meth[illegible] [illegible] by Dr. Wythe, present many interesting [illegible] supposed conflicts between the revela[illegible] [illegible] and the authenticity of the Bible. These [illegible] by the lecturer in a very able manner and [illegible] and clearness of which Dr. Wythe is mas[illegible]. The third lecture of the course will be delivered [illegible] upon the True Principle of Interpretation [illegible] Science no real objection. Revealed [illegible]. All who attend will be sure to receive much in[illegible] [illegible] these important matters. Let there be a [illegible]

[illegible]—The Zephyr, from San Francisco, [illegible] for the O. S. N. Co., to be used on one [illegible] above the Cascades which is twenty-six [illegible] feet in diameter, and weighs twenty eight [illegible]

[illegible].—The Board of Commissioners of Mult[illegible] county will convene tomorrow. We learn that [illegible] roll is about complete and that the rate of [illegible] will probably be determined.

FOR VICTORIA.—A flock of sheep numbering some [illegible] hundred were shipped to Victoria by the steamer [illegible] yesterday. From their appearance we judge they were of fine blood.

[illegible].—Farmer Ellis of the Sentinel has a statue of [illegible] Seymour, the democratic candidate for President [illegible] in the but wonderfully expressive.

NEW EYES AND PERFECT SIGHT.—Mr. G. Frankel, the celebrated optician of San Francisco, meets real success in our city and proposes to stay a few days longer for the purpose of supplying those that require assistance to their sight with his celebrated Russian Pebble Spectacles and Eye Glasses. All those that have not called on him yet should come at once and get themselves a pair of his glasses, which not only give a perfect vision but relieve the sight. Mr. F. calls special attention to his superior assortment of Optical Instruments such as Medical Compound and Student Microscopes. New styles of Opera, Field and Marine glasses, Telescopes and Magnifiers of all descriptions. Office with Lou Stoutt, 90 Front street.

NIGHT SCHOOL.—Mr. Fitzgerald has opened a Night School in the schoolhouse (up stairs) near the Catholic Church. Terms: For Reading, Writing, Arithmetic and English Grammar, $[illegible] per month. For Book keeping, Geometry and Algebra, $[illegible] per month. School opens at 7:30 P. M. and closes at 9:30 P. M.

HARMAN BROTHERS take pleasure in announcing to the citizens of Portland that they will open to day the second edition of the latest styles of French Beavers of all colors, Cassimeres, velvet and silk vestings ever brought to this city. Those desiring to have a fashionable suit made to order should call on Harman Brothers and examine their stock. They also call the attention of tailors to the large stock in the above line, together with tailoring trimmings, which they are selling wholesale at San Francisco prices.

WHITE WITNESSES.—The mouth of the man who purifies his teeth with SOZODONT is a witness box, and every time he opens it two rows of glistening witnesses testify to its beautifying properties.

FROM the Army Hospital, the bloody battle-field, the mansion of the rich and the humble abode of the poor—from the office and the sacred desk, from the mountain top, distant valley and far off islands of the ocean—from every nook and corner of the civilized world is pouring in the evidence of the astonishing effects of DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS. Thousands upon thousands of letters like the following can be seen at our office:

* * * I have been in the Army Hospital fourteen months, speechless and nearly dead. At Alton, Ill., they gave me a bottle of Plantation Bitters. Three bottles have made me well again. C. H. FLAULE.

Dancing Academy.—Prof. McCann's Dancing Academy is open every evening in the week excepting Wednesday, for the reception of pupils. Corner of Front and Alder streets. Class for children half past one Saturday afternoon.

A Beacon of Health.—The good things of this world have each their appointed mission.

It is the mission of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS to prevent and relieve a great variety of ailments.

For twelve years its success as a protective and a remedy has been without check or drawback. It is strong negative evidence of this fact that the efficacy of the article for dyspepsia, biliousness, constipation, nervousness, general debility, and intermittent fevers, has never been questioned.

As proof positive of its infallibility in such cases, the statements of public men whose names are familiar as household words have from time to time been given to the world.

If its reputation is not founded in facts, then truth is a shadow and the utterances of conscientious citizens are of no more value than dicers' oaths."

And what is its reputation? Let the progress of its sales answer the inquiry. Where twenty dozen bottles of Hostetter's Bitters were sold in 1855, five hundred dozen are disposed of now.

Could public opinion be more significantly expressed than by its unparalleled increase of consumption? It seems impossible.

The preparation has been imitated. Where are the imitators? Echo answers, "Where?" To the limbo of things lost on earth they are all either gone or going. Peace be with them.

An Acknowledged Fact.—"Truth crushed to earth shall rise again," not so the thousands of worthless compounds thrust before the public, as specifics.

NEWELL'S PULMONARY SYRUP having stood the test of opposition and prejudice, while on trial at the bar of public opinion, now stands pre-eminent as the greatest known remedy for all affections of the chest and lungs. Use it.

Personal.—Redington & Co.'s Florida WATER, is far superior to any perfume of the kind ever before the public. Its delicate and enduring fragrance proceeds from the use in its manufacture of the most exquisitely distilled Flower Extracts instead of those crude and common oils so generally used in this and foreign countries in perfume.

Fever Ague and other diseases incident to our Southern and Western climates at once leaves the system when DR. F. COOPER'S UNIVERSAL MAGNETIC BALM is properly used. FOR A COLD it is almost a specific. NEURALGIA and RHEUMATIC AFFECTIONS [illegible] all other remedies have failed. In short it is emphatically a FAMILY MEDICINE.

G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS. 635 AND 637 FRONT ST.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities, CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here and in the markets of the interior a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless buyers should be forewarned and placed on their guard against this practice.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.
Each package bears the signature of G. VENARD.

Political Catechism

Somebody has furnished the people with the following catechism, embodying important historical facts stated in a very plain way so that he who runs may read:

Who nominated Frank Blair?

[illegible] Preston of Kentucky.

Who is Preston?

An ex-general of the ex-Confederate but still rebel Democratic army.

Who seconded the nomination?

An Alabama delegate.

What did he say in that connection?

"I as a rebel soldier, take great pleasure in casting Alabama's vote for the Union soldier Frank P. Blair."

Who advocated the nomination?

Vallandigham, the gentle wanderer over the border.

Who cast the vote of Tennessee?

Napoleon Bonaparte Forrest.

Who is Forrest?

He was a member of a firm that bought and sold human beings in Memphis before the rebellion, and was the leader of a herd of ruffians and murderers during the war, and by his massacre at Fort Pillow he became the greatest butcher of the age.

Who cast the vote of Texas?

General Ashbel Smith, an unwashed rebel soldier.

Who spoke in Blair's favor?

Simon B. Buckner.

For what is Buckner noted?

For seducing the youth of Kentucky from patriotism to treason; for surrendering Fort Donelson to the Union soldiers under Grant; for his low estimate of the military talents of the man who whipped him, and for being the principal speaker at the Conservative Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention.

Who supports the nomination?

All the traitors and impenitent rebels, all the copperheads, all the skulkers and [illegible] sneaks.

Why does Blair receive the support of all these men?

Because he wrote a letter advocating a renewal of the war.

Who want the Union soldiers to bury the past and give them a chance to do the [illegible] work over?

Seymour and Blair and all such supporters as enumerated.

PLANCHETTE.—The Nevada [illegible] of October 7th relates the following:

A party of gentlemen were assembled at Crawford's book store a day or two ago, experimenting with Planchette. Having satisfied themselves that it worked in the hands of one of their number, they mentally propounded a series of questions of a spiritual and financial character, all of which were answered satisfactorily. One of the party being a politician, very naturally made the inquiry as to which of the Presidential candidates would be elected, and also which would receive the electoral vote in California. The name of "Grant" was written in unmistakable characters. He then mentally inquired as to the political sentiments of those present, Planchette promptly answering, and placing each individual with the party to which he belonged. At this moment a young man entered the store who, it is asserted, [illegible] changed his political status and sold out to Seymour and Blair. One of the party mentally asked what he was? After a moment's hesitation, Planchette made the following letters: "D—d f-o-o-l." This ended the experiments, no one present any longer doubting the wonderful intelligence of this little machine.

TO THE ENTERPRISING

Farmers of Oregon!

CASTONS'S X-L-SIOR

BROAD-CAST GRAIN-SOWER.

THIS VALUABLE LABOR-SAVING MACHINE which has already been adopted in nearly every Agricultural county in the State of California and in every county where it has been presented, has been brought to Portland by who holds the exclusive right to the same for the State of Oregon, and is now ready to accommodate the farmers of this State with machines, and to sell county rights to manufacture the same.

This machine saves the entire cost and labor of sowing a field excepting the cost of a machine—the same team being used for sowing and harrowing as is used for harrowing alone, the farmer or his boy riding and driving his team, instead of walking and carrying his heavy sack and then walking and dragging his grain in.

The inventor of this valuable aid to farmers is a man of large experience in seeding machines, and has happily succeeded in this invention in producing a machine which, while it carries the farmer as if on a sulky, sows wheat, barley, oats and peas with greater regularity than the same can be sown by hand, and at the same time the harrow attached to it, immediately behind, covers the grain and the labor is done. Any intelligent farmer who has ever carried a sack and sowed grain will readily see that its X-L-SIOR Grain Sower will save its entire cost in labor alone—to say nothing of its saving in seed—in sowing comparatively but few acres, and we have placed a proper estimate upon the enterprise of our Oregon farmers if this machine is not generally adopted in this State as it has already been in California, and where the farmers write to the inventors respecting it after this manner:

LINCOLN, (Placer Co.) Sept. 5, '68.

MR. H. A. CASTON—Dear Sir, I have two complete machines X-L-SIOR, which I challenge the State to beat for sowing grain. I have not as many fingers in the shaft as you directed, but I do not want my machines to sow any better than they do. I have sowed and gauged them perfectly.
T. C. PURINGTON.

By addressing or calling upon Mr. Brusie at C. Hopkins' corner of Front and Morrison streets, in this city, machines or County Rights to manufacture and sell the machines can be purchased at reasonable rates.

EXTINGUISHER

ELF ACTING FIRE ENGINE!

THIS INVENTION HAS FOR ITS OBJECT THE extinguishing of Fires in a more instantaneous manner than has hitherto been discovered.

The advantages to be derived from the use of the EXTINGUISHER are as follows:

Every fire begins on a small scale, and its rapid and uncontrollable increase is owing to the fact that at the time of its commencement (when every moment's delay in checking it is of the utmost importance) no means are ready at hand.

The EXTINGUISHER is the only Engine that fills this requirement.

It is always ready for use, though standing unused for years.

It puts out Fire instantly.

It saves the great deluge of water now used for this purpose.

It is as effective in the hands of a Boy as the most experienced Fireman.

It is portable, and as easily handled as a bucket of water.

It possesses within itself the power of a force pump, and as effective as a Steam Engine.

It is the only known invention that will put out Fires from Kerosene, Tar, Naphtaline and combustible materials now in common use.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases of years standing and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation they endure and suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life destroying maladies, see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of these charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sworn-to certificates dupe the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory, and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets, for, as advertising physicians, in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patient's letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 252.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER.
Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian.
